SUMMER 2010

A Carpet Restoration Success Story, by Allen Shipley

When I first met Stella and Lloyd Nicholson they were a little standoffish. I could sense their past experiences with carpet cleaners left a lot to be desired. Their carpets were loose throughout the entire house and there was a black appearance in the traffic lanes due to soil re-attracting to a cleaning agent residue that was left from previous cleaners. When we entered what used to be the guest bedroom my eyes began to water, the chemical odor was overpowering. The previous cleaning company had saturated the carpet with a deodorizing chemical and left it there! I couldn't believe my eyes, ears, and nose. We had to get out of that room. The next day I returned with Steven Aguirre to remove the carpet and chemically contaminated cushion from the bedroom. We submerged the carpet in a bath at our in-shop rug cleaning plant and continued for two hours to rinse chemical from the carpet. When the bath was complete the carpet was cleaned, re-installed with new pad and was re-stretched along with the remainder of the upper level carpet. Once re-stretched all carpets were cleaned and returned to a like new condition.

The following letter was submitted by Stella and Lloyd Nicholson of Monument, Colorado on June 2, 2010:

“Dear Allen,

I am writing this letter to let you know how wonderful it is to have our carpet back to its original new look again. And I do mean “new” look. We never expected such astonishing results after what we have gone through.

Our carpet was installed just 5 years ago. Due to a sad set of circumstances with our cat that passed away, we had to have our carpet cleaned after only two and a half years. The cat had sprayed repeatedly in one bedroom and in a hallway in a short period of time. We looked around for a good company to clean our carpets and thought we had found one. They came in and said that they “guarantee their work”. They put some very strong chemicals down which did not solve the problem. They came back three times charging us more and more each time. The carpet was flooded with more chemicals and the smell was overpowering. We finally gave up on them. They left us with a room that we could not go into due to the chemical smell. It made our eyes water and it did not feel safe for humans or animals to go into. The rest of the carpet took on a rough, tired look. We did not know what was wrong with it. But we had already paid them three times what they originally quoted us and we were not about to call them back again.

Through the next two and a half years, we kept opening the window and door to the deck to that guest room to “air it out”. The smell never went away but it gradually became a little less. We still would never use it for a guest room. The rest of the carpet in the house became dingy looking and became harder to vacuum. We started to notice that the carpet also seemed loose and “ripply” we decided to try to find a carpet cleaner again. This time we were determined to do our due diligence and find someone who knew what they were doing.

When we were looking for a company that would do carpet cleaning and repair we noticed a symbol on one that stated Certified by IICRC. So I went to their web site and learned about that certification and what it meant. That is where we found your company. Knowing that you have people who are IICRC certified Senior Inspectors gave us the peace of mind to call. Then I found out you had over 38 years in the business, well that sealed the deal for me. We never looked back.

You came to our house and were horrified to find what had been done. You gave us a quote in writing, detailing everything that you would do and guaranteed that we would be happy with the end result. Your men came out on time and were so courteous to us. They worked with us every step of the way, moving furniture and being so careful with all our stuff. You even stopped by one of the days just to check and see how things were coming along and to make sure that we were happy with the progress. This was not an easy job. The carpet in the bedroom had to be removed and transported to your plant where it was washed and rinsed to get that chemical out of it. Then it was re-installed back into the bedroom. The rest of the carpet in our house had to be re-stretched wall to wall, then cleaned.”

“When all of this was done, the furniture was put back into each room. We were amazed at how dry the carpet seemed as each room was finished. The process was so smooth and easy. Your men worked so well together and made it seem so seamless.

Our carpet today is like brand new. There is no odor except freshness. It literally looks like the day it was installed. We now have a guest room that we can use again. The carpet is now 5 years old and will probably last another 15 years or more for me. When I vacuum my carpet I smile and think of you. How can we ever thank you enough. We would recommend your business to anyone. You will be our carpet care person/company for life.

Again, Thank you so much,

Stella and Lloyd Nicholson”

Wow that was a challenging job and we were not even sure we would be able to get the smell out. Thank you Stella and Lloyd for allowing me to share your story. I am so proud of the technicians involved in this project: Steven Aguirre, Richard Spradling, and Austin Shipley they worked very hard to gain the desired outcome and they deserve all the credit.
